Dear Fritz:

I have been away for a short holiday which accounts for the long delay in acknowledging your good letter of August 19 with its enclosure.

I had already noted your letter to the NEW YORK TIMES of August 19. I agree with you about the Housinger "Order of the Day". I had noted it because of the number of old friends who were affected by this.

Also, I appreciate your expression of sympathy on my brother's death.

Faithfully yours,
